

Friday 22nd November 2024

Pupil Voice is much celebrated here at Friars. We like to ask children how they feel about their learning and their experience at school.

Our school council met this week to discuss making the school even better, and we also asked a sample of children from each class about their views on 'writing'.

In answer to, 'How do you make your writing exciting?' Gretchen in Y3 said, "I like to divide sentences into groups and make words exciting," and Oliver in Y5 said, "I would use short sentences to build tension and try to make the reader think."
